

PSG INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY AND APPLIED RESEARCH

(Approved by AICTE and Affiliated with Anna University)

Neelambur, Coimbatore – 641062

Report on Independence Day Celebration 2024

Our college vibrated with patriotic fervor on Independence Day as we celebrated India's freedom with a rousing parade by the NCC cadets and a heartwarming flag-hoisting ceremony. The event was graced by the esteemed presence of our chief guests, Dr. P.V. Mohanram, the Secretary, and the Dean of Academics, Dr. C. L. Vasu .

The day began with the national anthem followed by the flag-hoisting ceremony, a solemn and significant moment. The national flag was hoisted with full ceremonial honors in the presence of ANO of 5 TN Girls Batallion Lt. V. Vilasini and ANO of 6 TN Medical Company Lt. P. Gajendran. The college band's rhythmic beats reverberated through the air as the audience joined together to sing the national anthem. This shared moment of national pride was a powerful reminder of the sacrifices made for our independence and the importance of unity in upholding the nation's values.

Following flag hoisting, the focus shifted to the captivating parade by the NCC cadets. Clad in their crisp uniforms, these cadets marched in perfect formation, their steps synchronized and their faces etched with determination. The parade was a mesmerizing spectacle of discipline and precision, showcasing the cadets' dedication and unwavering commitment.

A group of NCC cadets, forming the pilot party, played a crucial role in receiving Dr. P. V. Mohanram and Dr. C. L. Vasu with due respect. As the chief guests arrived, the cadets stood tall, forming a guard of honor. The sharp salutes and impeccable posture displayed by the cadets reflected the pride and discipline instilled by the NCC program. The pilot party then escorted the chief guests to their designated seats on the stage, where they were also welcomed by the college authorities.

Dr. C. L. Vasu took the dais and addressed the gathering. His speech resonated with pride in India's rich heritage and the sacrifices made to achieve independence. He highlighted the importance of upholding democratic values and working towards a brighter future for the nation.

Dr. P. V. Mohanram sir's speech also included a noteworthy announcement. He proudly shared the news of a significant increase in NCC club enrollment within our college. This surge reflects the growing interest among students in serving the nation and developing essential life skills like discipline, teamwork, and leadership. He further elaborated on the recent success of an NCC training camp hosted at our college. Over 500 cadets from various institutions participated in the camp, receiving intensive training in military skills, leadership development, and disaster management. This accomplishment solidified our college's commitment to nurturing future leaders and responsible citizens.

In addition to the NCC parade, the Independence Day celebrations also featured a variety of cultural performances by the students. These performances showcased the rich and diverse cultural heritage of our nation. The talented students presented traditional dances, songs, and skits, captivating the audience with their skills and enthusiasm. In conclusion, our college's Independence Day celebrations were a sounding success. JAI HIND!