The IEEE Student Branch of PSGiTech organized a seminar competition titled “Navigating the Future: Trends and Emerging Technologies” on 18/12/2024, for the students of first year EEE and I&CE. Dr. C.V. Pavithra, Asst. Prof. (Sl. Gr.) and faculty coordinator of IEEE welcomed the participants. The objective of the competition was to create awareness about IEEE Spectrum Magazine and provide opportunity for the first-year students to present their ideas on cutting-edge innovations in the Electrical and Electronics Industry. It was a single round event. Dr. M. Mohamed Iqbal, Prof. and Dr. E. Govinda Kumar, Asso. Prof, were the judges for the presentation who made assessment based on the students’ performance in terms of presentation skills, technical innovations, body language and Q&A. The best four teams were selected after evaluation by the judges and the results were declared by Dr. C. S. Subash Kumar, Associate Professor & HOD (i/c), EEE. Ms. Kamali, Treasurer of IEEE student branch delivered the vote of thanks, expressing her views on the presentations and her takeaways.
