Report on 79th Independence Day- 2025

The PSG Institute of Technology and Applied Research, Neelambur, Coimbatore, celebrated the 79th Independence Day with tremendous pride and patriotism on 15th August at iTech Square. The event aimed to honour the sacrifices of freedom fighters and to instil a spirit of unity and national pride among students, faculty, and staff. The celebration was graced by the presence of the Chief Guest, Col. S. Ganapathi (Retd), Corps of Signals, Indian Army, who brought honour to the occasion with his valuable presence. The National Flag was hoisted by the Chief Guest, followed by the singing of the National Anthem, filling the campus with patriotic fervour. The NCC cadets performed a ceremonial march past as a mark of respect to the nation and in honour of the chief guest. Their synchronised movements and disciplined performance drew appreciation from the audience.

Following the parade, the gathering was initially greeted by a member of the student union. Col. S. Ganapathi (Retd) delivered an inspiring address. He shared his experiences from the Indian Army, emphasised discipline, unity, and commitment to duty, and encouraged students to contribute to the nation through innovation, hard work, and integrity.

Principal presented a Memento to the Chief Guest Col. S. Ganapathi

The Felicitation Address was delivered by Dr P. V. Mohanram, Secretary, PSG iTech. He warmly appreciated the chief guest for his distinguished service to the Indian Army and for gracing the institution's celebration with his presence. He highlighted the importance of instilling patriotism, responsibility, and leadership qualities in young minds and expressed gratitude to Col. Ganapathi for motivating the students with his words of wisdom. A memento was also presented to the chief guest as a token of respect and appreciation.
