Report on Republic Day

The Republic Day celebration at PSG Institute of Technology and Applied Research on January 26, 2025, was a grand and patriotic event. Students, faculty, staff, and esteemed guests attended the program. The event aimed to instill a sense of pride and honor for our nation while celebrating India's democratic spirit.

The event commenced with the arrival of the Chief Guest, Dr. Arumuganathan R, Professor, Department of Mathematics, PSG College of Technology, who was warmly received by the Principal and other dignitaries. A special escort team, including NCC cadets, guided the chief guest to the stage.

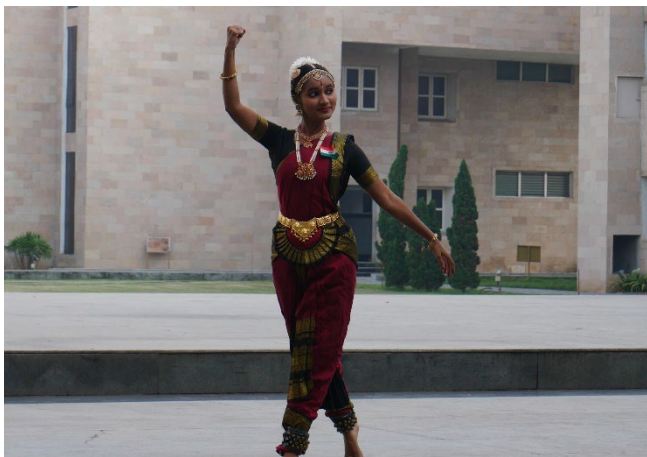

At 8 AM, the chief guest hoisted the national flag, marking the beginning of the formal celebration. With great enthusiasm, the gathering stood in unison as the national anthem, Jana Gana Mana, filled the atmosphere with patriotism.

A spectacular march past was performed by the college's NCC cadets. The Chief Guest took the salute as the contingents marched with discipline and coordination, showcasing their dedication and respect for the nation.

Following the parade, the gathering was initially greeted by a member of the student union. The chief guest addressed the audience. In an inspiring speech, he highlighted the significance of Republic Day, the sacrifices of our freedom fighters, and the role of youth in shaping the future of India. Applause and deep appreciation greeted the speech. In addition, the principal honoured the chief guest with a memento.

As a way of celebrating the spirit of India through the graceful expressions of Bharathanatyam, a thought-provoking mime performance, a patriotic Tamil poem and speech weaving the pride and heritage of our nation, and a melodious patriotic medley, including songs like Vande Mataram, were presented by students, depicting India's journey to independence and the values enshrined in the Constitution. The silent yet powerful act left a lasting impact on the audience. Their soulful performance evoked emotions of unity and pride.

Following this, the prize distribution ceremony took place to acknowledge the students' participation on this auspicious day. The chief guest and the principal provided an endowment, encouraging students to continue striving for excellence.

The Republic Day celebration concluded with a vote of thanks by CUO in NCC. The event was a grand success, leaving everyone with a renewed sense of patriotism and responsibility towards the nation.
